FE Amundi SICAV – Annual Report Management Commentary (Reflective of February 28, 2023 to February 29, 2024)

FIRST EAGLE AMUNDI INTERNATIONAL FUND

The performance of risk assets throughout 2023 and in the first couple of months of 2024 seemed to ebb and flow alongside expectations of Fed policy. While a “higher for longer” sentiment dominated most of the year—sparking a pronounced selloff in Treasuries and broad weakness in stocks—optimism that a “soft landing” and series of rate cuts were just over the horizon appeared to take root in late October. The renewal of dovish sentiment, which was reinforced by macroeconomic readings and Fed rhetoric in the weeks that followed, fueled a furious rally across a wide range of assets through the balance of the year. Notably, equity market breadth widened in conjunction with this surge, unlike earlier rallies concentrated in a small subset of very large technology-related names, though growth continued to outpace value.

Market returns in 2023 were a welcome respite from a dismal 2022, but the buoyant conditions entering the new year made us wonder if hope had gotten the better of substance. We believe the investment environment today is rife with challenges, the escalation of which could shake markets from their apparent complacency and inspire a newfound sense of risk aversion, to the detriment of many financial assets.

For example, current market valuations suggest markets are complacent about the inevitability of a soft landing even as any sort of landing remains elusive; in our view, the risk of an adverse outcome only increases the longer the Fed circles the runway without touching down. We have long been skeptical of the central bank's ability to achieve a soft landing and remain so today; notably, the continued strength of the domestic labor market makes it hard for us to envision a scenario in which wage growth spontaneously returns to a level consistent with target-level inflation absent a meaningful increase in unemployment.

We are also concerned about the unsustainable fiscal trajectory of the US and other advanced economies, as public debt balances continue to swell with no sign of the spending discipline necessary to rein them in. The rollback of crisis-era monetary accommodations has altered the calculus of government borrowing, but we have yet to see indications that fiscal policy will be adjusted to reflect the new math anytime soon. In the near term, even minor spending decisions may weigh heavily on the economy and markets. A small amount of fiscal tightening in 2024 likely would raise the odds of a hard landing, for instance, but maintaining fiscal settings at current levels could open the door to renewed inflation or stagflation. Neither outcome is particularly good for risk asset valuations.

Macroeconomic risks have been further complicated by a new geopolitical theater of uncertainty, marked by the emergence of a loose coalition of authoritarian countries like China, Russia, North Korea and Iran. This “heartland axis” controls a vast, near-contiguous swath of land rich with natural resources across Eurasia and into the Middle East and northern Africa, and in recent years has increased the volume and scope of its military adventurism, both directly and via proxies. Their tighter relations with one another, at a minimum, sets the stage for greater friction in economic relations with the West, and there are many ways in which current localized armed conflicts (such as Ukraine/Russia and Israel/Hamas) could escalate into something more far-reaching.

With the above as a backdrop, FEAI returned 10.23% (USD, AUC share class) from February 28, 2023 to February 29, 2024. Our equity holdings and gold-related securities both contributed to performance, as did cash and cash equivalents. Equity sector exposure to Communication Services, Information Technology and Financials were the strongest contributors to absolute performance during this period while Energy, Utilities and Materials were the largest detractors. Among individual stocks (not including gold-related), the Fund's top contributors included Meta, Oracle, Alphabet, HCA Healthcare, Salesforce, FEMSA, Microsoft, MS&D Insurance, Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing and Comcast. On the flipside, C.H. Robinson, NOV, IPG Photonics, Nutrien, Schlumberger, Wells Fargo, UGI, Alibaba, CK Asset Holdings and FANUC were the largest detractors.

Between end of February 2023 and end of February 2024, we established 9 new equity positions; five based in Europe (one of each in consumer staples, real estate, healthcare, industrials, and energy) and four in North America (two energy companies, one each in real estate and media and entertainment). During this period, we fully exited 12 equity positions, which included our positions in CRH, DR Horton, Travelers, Union Pacific and W.R. Berkley when share prices reflected our estimates of their “intrinsic values”¹; in Fidelity National Information Services upon reevaluation of the business model; and in Imperial Oil due to the ESG-related constraints on this particular fund. The team decided to exit Wells Fargo as a result of its changing business model; specifically, it had eliminated the asset management business, so the diversification and fee-paying element that we found attractive was no longer, and it continued to have material compliance expenses as a result of the fake account scandal from years prior. We exited our position in GSK following an updated estimate of intrinsic value after the company spun off Haleon, its consumer healthcare business, which we continue to own. We exited our positions in Lotte Wellfood and Lotte Corp, both relatively illiquid names, after trimming throughout the year with the opportunity to fully liquidate the positions in January and February, respectively. We exited our position in Mitsubishi Estate on valuation as the business had focused on growth in what we believe are non-core assets, which resulted in a potentially less durable capital structure. We added to and trimmed various positions throughout the period to maintain portfolio balance and promote diversification.²

Though financial markets generally appear unconcerned with the challenges we see here early in the new year, we believe it is quite possible that risk aversion will at some point be higher than it is today. Though we would not hazard a guess as to when that may be, we believe we have remained prudently positioned, owning a range of quality businesses with track records of consistent cash flow generation and wise capital allocation, complemented by an exposure to gold-related securities as a potential hedge.

1. “Intrinsic value” is based on our judgment of what a prudent and rational business buyer would pay in cash for all of the company in normal markets. First Eagle defines “margin of safety” as the difference between a company's market price and our estimate of its intrinsic value.

2. Diversification does not guarantee investment returns and does not eliminate the risk of loss.

FIRST EAGLE AMUNDI INCOME BUILDER FUND

The performance of risk assets throughout 2023 and in the first couple of months of 2024 seemed to ebb and flow alongside expectations of Fed policy. While a “higher for longer” sentiment dominated most of the year—sparking a pronounced selloff in Treasuries and broad weakness in stocks—optimism that a “soft landing” and series of rate cuts were just over the horizon appeared to take root in late October. For example, current market valuations suggest markets are complacent about the inevitability of a soft landing even as any sort of landing remains elusive; in our

Their tighter relations with one another, at a minimum, sets the stage for greater friction in economic relations with the West, and there are many ways in which current localized armed conflicts (such as Ukraine/Russia and Israel/Hamas) could escalate into something more far-reaching.

With the above as a backdrop, FEAI BF returned 4.38% (USD, AUC share class) from February 28, 2023 to February 29, 2024. Both our equity and bond holdings contributed to performance, as did gold-related securities and cash and cash equivalents. Financials, Consumer Staples and Health Care were the equity sectors that contributed the most to absolute performance during this period while Real Estate and Utilities were the only two sectors that detracted from absolute performance. Among individual stocks (not including gold-related), the Fund's top contributors included FEMSA, Colgate-Palmolive, HCA, Coca-Cola FEMSA, Investor AB, Power Corp of Canada, MS&AD Insurance Group, Industrivarden AB, Schindler and Comcast. The largest detractors included Compania Cervecerias Unidas, Jardine Matheson, CK Asset Holdings, Hongkong Land Holdings, Groupe Bruxelles Lambert, Nestle, Wells Fargo, Great Eagle Holdings, C.H. Robinson and Hysan Development.

We established 7 new equity holdings between end of February 2023 and end of February 2024, including five in Europe (two in consumer staples and one in each real estate, industrials, and energy) and two in North America (two in materials). During the same period, we exited ten equity names (not including gold-related securities): we exited our positions in Fidelity National Information Services upon reevaluation of its intrinsic value; in GSK following an updated estimate of intrinsic value after the company spun off Haleon, its consumer healthcare business, which we continue to own; in HAL Trust and Imperial Oil Limited due to Amundi's ESG policy so that the security no longer fit the parameters for the fund; in Komatsu to reduce cyclical risk in this particular portfolio and it was also an opportunity to take profits while doing so; and in Ross Stores, RPM International, Walmart and Guoco Group as the yields dropped to a level that did not fit the ideal parameters of the fund. The team decided to exit Wells Fargo as a result of its changing business model; specifically, it had eliminated the asset management business, so the diversification and fee-paying element that we found attractive was no longer, and it continued to have material compliance expenses as a result of the fake account scandal from years prior.

Our equity holdings and gold-related securities both contributed to performance, as did cash and cash equivalents. Among individual stocks (not including gold-related), the Fund's top contributors Salesforce,

Alphabet, FEMSA, Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing, MS&AD Insurance, HCA Healthcare, Willis Towers Watson Public Limited, Oracle, Comcast, and Schindler. The largest detractors included Nutrien, Fidelity National Information Services, Dentsply Sirona, Truist Financial, Reckitt Benckiser, Naspers Limited, Groupe Bruxelles Lambert, Safestore Holdings, Lloyds Banking Group, and Victrex.

We established 15 new equity positions between end of February 2023 and end of February 2024: nine in Europe (five in real estate, two in consumer staples, one in health care and one in materials), four in North America (one in media and entertainment, one in industrials, one transportation and one real estate), and two in Asia (one in information technology and one in health care). During this same period, we exited our positions in CRH and Union Pacific as the shares reflected our team's estimate of its intrinsic value¹; in Ross Stores, Nestle, DAIWA Industries, Extra Space Storage, Shimano and C.H. Robinson as Amundi's ESG rating on the company dropped to a level that no longer fits within the parameters of the fund; and in Fidelity National Information Services upon reevaluation of the business model. We exited our position in Mitsubishi Estate on valuation as the business had focused on growth in what we believe are non-core assets which resulted in a potentially less durable capital structure. Lastly, we exited our position in GSK following an updated estimate of intrinsic value after the company spun off Haleon, its consumer healthcare business, which we continue to own. We added to and trimmed various positions throughout the period to maintain portfolio balance and promote diversification.²

Though financial markets generally appear unconcerned with the challenges we see here early in the new year, we believe it is quite possible that risk aversion will at some point be higher than it is today. Though we would not hazard a guess as to when that may be, we believe we have remained prudently positioned, owning a range of quality businesses with track records of consistent cash flow generation and wise capital allocation, complemented by an exposure to gold-related securities as a potential hedge.

1. "Intrinsic value" is based on our judgment of what a prudent and rational business buyer would pay in cash for all of the company in normal markets. First Eagle defines "margin of safety" as the difference between a company's market price and our estimate of its intrinsic value.

2. Diversification does not guarantee investment returns and does not eliminate the risk of loss.

2 PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING CONVENTIONS

■ PRESENTATION OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements. The financial statements reflect the Net Asset Values ("NAV") as calculated on the last business day of the period based on latest available market prices of the investments.

■ COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF THE SICAV

The combined statement of net assets and combined statement of operations and changes in net assets are expressed in USD and correspond to the total of the statements of net assets and statements of operations and changes in net assets of the individual Sub-Funds, converted in USD at the exchange rates applicable at period-end.

■ VALUATION OF INVESTMENT IN SECURITIES

The value of any cash on hand or on deposit bills and demand notes and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, cash dividends, interest declared or accrued and not yet received, all of which are deemed to be the full amount thereof, unless in any case the same is unlikely to be paid or received in full, in which case the value thereof is arrived at after making such discount as may be considered appropriate in such case to reflect the true value thereof.

Securities listed on a recognized stock exchange or dealt on any other Regulated Market that operates regularly, is recognized and is open to the public, are valued at their last available closing prices, or, in the event that there should be several such markets, on the basis of their last available closing prices on the main market for the relevant security.

In the event that the last available closing price does not, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the SICAV, truly reflect the fair market value of the relevant securities, the value of such securities is defined by the Board of Directors of the SICAV based on the reasonably foreseeable sales proceeds determined prudently and in good faith.

Securities not listed or traded on a stock exchange or not dealt on another Regulated Market are valued on the basis of the probable sales proceeds determined prudently and in good faith by the Board of Directors of the SICAV.

The liquidating value of futures, forward or options contracts not traded on exchanges or on other Regulated Markets shall mean their net liquidating value determined, pursuant to the policies established by the Board of Directors of the SICAV, on a basis consistently applied for each different variety of contracts.

The liquidating value of futures, forward or options contracts traded on exchanges or on other regulated markets shall be based upon the last available settlement prices of these contracts on exchanges and regulated markets on which the particular futures, forward foreign exchange contracts or options contracts are traded by the Company; provided that if a futures, forward foreign exchange contracts or options contract could not be liquidated on the day with respect to which net assets are being determined, the basis for determining the liquidating value of such contract shall be such value as the Board of Directors of the SICAV may deem fair and reasonable.

The value of money market instruments not listed or dealt in on any stock exchange or any other Regulated Market are valued at their face value with interest accrued.

In case of short term instruments with remaining maturity of less than 90 days the value of the instrument based on the net asset acquisition cost is gradually adjusted to the repurchase price thereof. In the event of material changes in market conditions, the valuation basis of the investment is adjusted to the new market yields.

Interest rate swaps are valued at their market value established by reference to the applicable interest rates curve.

Investments in collective investment schemes are valued on the basis of the last available prices of the units or shares of such collective investment schemes.

All other transferable securities and other permitted assets are valued at fair market value as determined in good faith pursuant to procedures established by the Board of Directors of the SICAV.

■ VALUATION OF FORWARD FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONTRACTS

Forward foreign exchange contracts are valued at the forward rate applicable at year-end for the remaining period until maturity and are included in the statement of net assets. Net realised result and change in unrealised appreciation and depreciation are included in the statement of operations and changes in net assets.

■ NET REALISED GAINS OR LOSSES RESULTING FROM INVESTMENTS

The realised gains or losses resulting from the sales of investments are calculated on an average cost basis.

■ FOREIGN EXCHANGE TRANSLATION

The accounts are maintained in US Dollar ("USD") and the financial statements are expressed in that currency.

The acquisition cost of securities purchased expressed in a currency other than the USD is translated in USD at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the purchase.

Income and expenses expressed in other currencies than the USD are translated in USD at exchange rates ruling at the transaction date.

At year-end, investments, assets and liabilities expressed in other currencies than the USD are translated at exchange rates ruling at this date. The net realised gains and losses or net change in unrealised appreciations and depreciations on foreign exchange are recognised in the statement of operations and changes in net assets in determining the increase or decrease in net assets.

■ INCOME

Dividends are recorded at the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis.

5 PERFORMANCE FEES

The Investment Manager may receive a performance fee from each class of shares according to the mechanisms detailed in the prospectus dated May 2023.

- The reference asset which represents and replicates the Net Asset Value of the relevant share class (before deduction of the performance fee) at the first day of the performance observation period, adjusted by subscriptions/redemptions at each valuation, to which the Reference for Performance fee (as stated for each Sub-Fund and share class) is applied.

Please refer to the prospectus for details of applicable performance fees rates and the Reference for Performance fee.

8 DIVIDENDS

The Distribution Shares apply the corresponding Sub-Fund's dividend policy (see the relevant Data sheet under Part I) in distributing an annual percentage of the net asset value ("Fixed Dividend") which payment may be scheduled following predetermined frequencies.

The following are the single or double letter suffixes currently in use and which indicate a frequency:

"QD" for quarterly dividend,

"MD" for monthly dividend,

"D" for annual dividend.

The proportion of Fixed Dividend corresponding to a given frequency is as follows :

Frequency distribution	Proportion of Fixed Dividend	Example of a Fixed Dividend amounting 4%
MD - Monthly	1/12 (8,333%)	0,333%
QD - Quarterly	1/4 (25%)	1%
D - Annually	1/1 (100%)	4%

Fixed Dividend may result to have the dividend composed of capital attributable to the Shares, whose amount will be driven by the amount of existing investment incomes and capital gains.

Fixed Dividend will seek to pay out a dividend regardless of the performance of the Shares. As a result, the net asset value of such Shares may fluctuate more than the other Classes of Shares for which it is generally not intended by the Board of Directors to distribute capital, and the potential for future appreciation of such net asset value of such Shares may be eroded.

The dividends payable are recorded in the "Statement of Net Assets" in the caption dividend payables all having ex-date February 29, 2024.

To each category of Distribution Shares corresponds a Fixed Dividend, with exception of the class OHE-QD and IU5-QD that distribute a quarterly dividend as determined by the Board.

Distribution Shares proposing a monthly or quarterly payment declare interim dividends. Quarterly dividends will be distributed on the last Business Day of February, May, August and November of each financial year. Monthly dividends will be distributed on the last business day of each month.

The Board of Directors will propose to distribute dividends in the form of cash in the relevant Class Currency. The Board of Directors may also decide that dividends be reinvested by the attribution of additional Shares of the same Class and Category of Shares. Such Shares will be issued on the payment date at the NAV per Share of the relevant Class in noncertificated form. Fractional entitlements to registered Shares will be recognized to three decimal places.

Dividends remaining unclaimed five years after the dividend record date will be forfeited and will accrue for the benefit of the relevant Class of Shares of the relevant Sub-Fund.

What we have audited

The Fund’s financial statements comprise:

- the securities portfolio as at 29 February 2024;
- the statement of net assets as at 29 February 2024;
- the statement of operations and changes in net assets for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession (Law of 23 July 2016) and with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as adopted for Luxembourg by the “Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier” (CSSF). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the “Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements” section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA Code) as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements. We have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities under those ethical requirements.

Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our audit report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or close any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the “Réviseur d’entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an audit report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control;
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund;

- conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our audit report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our audit report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern;
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

DISCLOSURE REGULATION

On 18 December 2019, the European Council and European Parliament announced that they had reached a political agreement on the Disclosure Regulation, thereby seeking to establish a pan-European framework to facilitate Sustainable Investment. The Disclosure Regulation provides for a harmonized approach in respect of sustainability-related disclosures to investors within the European Economic Area's financial services sector.

For the purposes of the Disclosure Regulation, the Management Company meets the criteria of a "financial market participant", whilst each Sub-Fund qualifies as a "financial product".

For further details on how a Sub-Fund complies with the requirements of the Disclosure Regulation please refer to the supplement for that Sub-Fund. Please also refer to the section on 'Sustainable Investment' in the Prospectus of the Fund and the Amundi Responsible Investment Policy available on www.amundi.com.

As required by Art.11 of the Disclosure Regulation the Fund makes the following statements:

Under the Amundi Responsible Investment Policy, Amundi has developed its own ESG rating approach. The Amundi ESG rating aims to measure the ESG performance of an issuer, i.e. its ability to anticipate and manage Sustainability Risks and opportunities inherent to its industry and individual circumstances. By using the Amundi ESG ratings, portfolio managers are taking into account Sustainability Risks in their investment decisions. Amundi applies targeted exclusion policies to all Amundi's active investing strategies by excluding companies in contradiction with the Responsible Investment Policy, such as those which do not respect international conventions, internationally recognized frameworks or national regulations.

Article 8 Sub-Funds (required Art.11.1) The Sub-Funds listed below are classified pursuant to article 8 of the Disclosure Regulation and aim to promote environmental and/or social characteristics. In addition to applying Amundi's Responsible Investment Policy, these Article 8 Sub-Funds aim to promote such characteristics through investments resulting in an ESG score of their portfolios greater than of their respective benchmark or investment universe. The ESG portfolio score is the AUM-weighted average of the issuers' ESG score based on Amundi ESG scoring model. During the financial year under reporting, the Investment Manager continuously promoted environmental and/or social characteristics through the application of the above mentioned methodologies.

Article 6 Sub-Funds

Given the investment focus and the asset classes/sectors they invest in, the investment managers of all other Sub-Funds, not classified pursuant to article 8 or 9 of the Disclosure Regulation did not integrate a consideration of environmentally sustainable economic activities into the investment process for the Sub-Fund. Therefore, it should be noted that the investments underlying the Sub-Fund did not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Throughout the financial year, the Sub-Fund considered PAI 14 via the Amundi Minimum Standard and Exclusion Policy related to controversial weapons, excluding issuers in the production, sale, storage or services for and of anti-personnel mines and cluster bombs, prohibited by the Ottawa and Oslo treaties and issuers involved in the production, sale or storage of chemical, biological and depleted uranium weapons, as per Amundi Global Responsible Investment Policy.

Environmental and/or social characteristics Sustainable investment objective

Did this financial product have a sustainable investment objective?

<input checked="" type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> <input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
<input type="checkbox"/> It made sustainable investments with an environmental objective: ___% <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> in economic activities that qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy <input type="checkbox"/> in economic activities that do not qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy <input type="checkbox"/> It made sustainable investments with a social objective: ___%	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> It promoted Environmental/Social (E/S) characteristics and while it did not have as its objective a sustainable investment, it had a proportion of 33.57% of sustainable investments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> with an environmental objective in economic activities that qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> with an environmental objective in economic activities that do not qualify as environmentally sustainable under the EU Taxonomy <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> with a social objective <input type="checkbox"/> It promoted E/S characteristics, but did not make any sustainable investments

Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not include a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The Sub-Fund continuously promoted environmental and/or social characteristics by aiming to have a higher ESG score than that of the investment universe. In determining the ESG score of the Sub-Fund and the investment universe, ESG performance is assessed by comparing the average performance of a security against the security issuer’s industry, in respect of each of the three ESG characteristics of environmental, social and governance. For the purpose of this measurement, the investment universe is defined as MSCI AC WORLD IMI Index. No ESG Reference Index has been designated.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

To continuously promote environmental and/or social characteristics the Fund has sought to invest in companies considered a 'best performer' in its sector of activity on at least one of its material environmental or social factors by:

- 1) following best environmental and social practices; and
- 2) avoiding making products or providing services that harm the environment and society.

The Sub-Fund met its promoted environmental and/or social characteristics by having a higher ESG score than that of the investment universe.

● How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicator used is the ESG score of the Sub-Fund that is measured against the ESG score of the investment universe of the Sub-Fund. Amundi's ESG rating process is based on the "Best-in-class" approach. Ratings adapted to each sector of activity aim to assess the dynamics in which companies operate. The Amundi ESG rating used to determine the ESG score is an ESG quantitative score translated into seven grades, ranging from A (the best scores in the universe) to G (the worst).

At the end of the period (February 29, 2024) the weighted average ESG rating of

- the investment universe is D

The Amundi ESG rating used to determine the ESG score is an ESG quantitative score translated into seven grades, ranging from A (the best scores universe) to G (the worst). In the Amundi ESG Rating scale, the securities belonging to the exclusion list correspond to a G. For corporate issuers, ESG performance is assessed globally and at relevant criteria level by comparison with the average performance of its industry, through the combination of the three ESG dimensions:

- Environmental dimension: this examines issuers' ability to control their direct and indirect environmental impact, by limiting their energy consumption, reducing their greenhouse emissions, fighting resource depletion and protecting biodiversity.
- Social dimension: this measures how an issuer operates on two distinct concepts: the issuer's strategy to develop its human capital and the respect of the human rights in general;
- Governance dimension: This assesses capability of the issuer to ensure the basis for an effective corporate governance framework and generate value over the long-term.

The methodology applied by Amundi ESG rating uses 38 criteria that are either generic (common to all companies regardless of their activity) or sector specific which are weighted according to sector and considered in terms of their impact on reputation, operational efficiency and regulations in respect of an issuer. Amundi ESG ratings are likely to be expressed globally on the three E, S and G dimensions or individually on any environmental or social factor.

● ...and compared to previous periods?

Not applicable – the fund was not yet reporting these data.

● What were the objectives of the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made and how did the sustainable investment contribute to such objectives?

The objectives of the sustainable investments were (and are) to invest in companies that seek to meet two criteria:

- 1) follow best environmental and social practices; and
- 2) avoid making products or providing services that harm the environment and society.

In order for the investee company to be deemed to contribute to the above objective it had to be a “best performer” within its sector of activity on at least one of its material environmental or social factors.

The definition of “best performer” relies on Amundi’s proprietary ESG methodology which aims to measure the ESG performance of an investee company. In order to be considered a “best performer”, an investee company must perform with the best top three rating (A, B or C, out of a rating scale going from A to G) within its sector on at least one material environmental or social factor.

Material environmental and social factors are identified at a sector level. The identification of material factors is based on Amundi’s ESG analysis framework which combines extra financial data and qualitative analysis of associated sector and sustainability themes.

Factors identified as material result in a contribution of more than 10% to the overall ESG score. For the energy sector for example, material factors are: emissions and energy, biodiversity and pollution, health and security, local communities and human rights.

For a more complete overview of sectors and factors, please refer to the Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement available at www.amundi.lu.

To contribute to the above objectives, the investee company should not have significant exposure to activities (e.g. tobacco, weapons, gambling, coal, aviation, meat production, fertilizer and pesticide manufacturing, single-use plastic production) not compatible with such criteria.

The sustainable nature of an investment is assessed at investee company level.

How did the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made not cause significant harm to any environmental or social sustainable investment objective?

To ensure sustainable investments do no significant harm (“DNSH”), Amundi utilized (and currently utilizes) two filters:

1.) The first DNSH test filter relies on monitoring the mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts indicators in Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS where robust data is available (e.g. GHG intensity of investee companies) via a combination of indicators (e.g. carbon intensity) and specific thresholds or rules (e.g. that the investee company’s carbon intensity does not belong to the last decile of the sector). Amundi already considers specific Principle Adverse Impacts within its exclusion policy as part of Amundi’s Responsible Investment Policy. These exclusions, which apply on the top of the tests detailed above, cover the following topics: exclusions on controversial weapons, Violations of UN Global Compact principles, coal and tobacco.

2.) Beyond the specific sustainability factors covered in the first filter, Amundi has defined a second filter, which does not take the mandatory Principal Adverse Impact indicators above into account, in order to verify that the company does not badly perform from an overall environmental or social standpoint compared to other companies within its sector which corresponds to an environmental or social score superior or equal to E using Amundi's ESG rating.

— — — How were the indicators for adverse impacts on sustainability factors taken into account?

The indicators for adverse impacts have been taken into account as detailed in the first DNSH filter above:

The first DNSH filter relies on monitoring of mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts indicators in Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS where robust data is available via the combination of following indicators and specific thresholds or rules:

- Have a CO2 intensity which does not belong to the last decile compared to other companies within its sector (only applies to high intensity sectors), and
- Have a Board of Directors' diversity which does not belong to the last decile compared to other companies within its sector, and
- Be cleared of any controversy in relation to work conditions and human rights.
- Be cleared of any controversy in relation to biodiversity and pollution.

Amundi already considers specific Principle Adverse Impacts within its exclusion policy as part of Amundi's Responsible Investment Policy. These exclusions, which apply on the top of the tests detailed above, cover the following topics: exclusions on controversial weapons, Violations of UN Global Compact principles, coal and tobacco.

— — — Were sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights? Details:

Yes, the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights are integrated into our ESG scoring methodology. Our proprietary ESG rating tool assesses issuers using available data from our data providers. For example the model has a dedicated criteria called "Community Involvement & Human Rights" which is applied to all sectors in addition to other human rights linked criteria including socially responsible supply chains, working conditions, and labor relations. Furthermore, we conduct controversy monitoring on a, at minimum, quarterly basis which includes companies identified for human rights violations. When controversies arise, analysts will evaluate the situation and apply a score to the controversy (using our proprietary scoring methodology) and determine the best course of action. Controversy scores are updated quarterly to track the trend and remediation efforts.

How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

The Sub-Fund considers all the mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts as per Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS applying to the Sub-Fund's strategy and relies on a combination of exclusion policies (normative and sectorial), ESG rating integration into the investment process, engagement and voting approaches and controversies monitoring:

- Exclusion: Amundi has defined normative, activity-based and sector-based exclusion rules covering some of the key adverse sustainability indicators listed by the Disclosure Regulation.
- ESG factors integration: Amundi has adopted minimum ESG integration standards applied by default to its actively managed open-ended funds (exclusion of G rated issuers and better weighted average ESG score higher than the applicable benchmark). The 38 criteria used in Amundi's ESG rating approach were also designed to consider key impacts on sustainability factors, as well as quality of the mitigation undertaken are also considered in that respect.
- Engagement: Engagement is a continuous and purpose driven process aimed at influencing the activities or behaviour of investee companies. The aim of engagement activities can fall into two categories: to engage an issuer to improve the way it integrates the environmental and social dimension or to engage an issuer to improve its impact on environmental, social, and human rights-related or other sustainability matters that are material to society and the global economy.
- Voting: Amundi's voting policy responds to a holistic analysis of all the long-term issues that may influence value creation, including material ESG issues. For more information please refer to Amundi's Voting Policy* .
- Controversies monitoring: Amundi has developed a controversy tracking system that relies on three external data providers to systematically track controversies and their level of severity. This quantitative approach is then enriched with an in-depth assessment of each severe controversy, led by ESG analysts and the periodic review of its evolution. This approach applies to all of Amundi's funds.

For any indication on how mandatory Principal Adverse Impact indicators are used, please refer to the Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement available at www.amundi.lu

The EU Taxonomy sets out a “do not significant harm” principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm EU Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific Union criteria.

The “do no significant harm” principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.

To what extent were the sustainable investments with an environmental objective aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

The Fund promotes both environmental and social characteristics. The Fund did not commit to making investments aligned with the EU Taxonomy and made no sustainable investments aligned with the EU Taxonomy during the reporting period.

● Did the financial product invest in fossil gas and/or nuclear energy related activities complying with the EU Taxonomy¹?

Yes:

In fossil gas

In nuclear energy

No

¹ Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change (“climate change mitigation”) and do not significantly harm any EU Taxonomy objective. The full criteria for fossil gas and nuclear energy economic activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy are laid down in Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1214.

Taxonomy-aligned activities are expressed as a share of:

- turnover reflecting the share of revenue from green activities of investee companies.
- capital expenditure (CapEx) showing the green investments made by investee companies, e.g. for a transition to a green economy.
- operational expenditure (OpEx) reflecting green operational activities of investee companies.

The graphs below show in green the percentage of investments that were aligned with the EU Taxonomy. As there is no appropriate methodology to determine the taxonomy-alignment of sovereign bonds*, the first graph shows the Taxonomy alignment in relation to all the investments of the financial product including sovereign bonds, while the second graph shows the Taxonomy alignment only in relation to the investments of the financial product other than sovereign bonds.

* For the purpose of these graphs, 'sovereign bonds' consist of all sovereign exposures.

● What was the share of investments made in transitional and enabling activities?

As of 29/02/2024, the Fund's share of investment in transitional activities was 0.00% and the share of investment in enabling activities was 0.00%.
The reported alignment percentage of the investments of the Fund with the EU Taxonomy has not been audited by the Fund's auditors or by any third party.

● How did the percentage of investments that were aligned with the EU Taxonomy compare with previous reference periods?

Not applicable – the fund was not yet reporting these data.

What was the share of sustainable investments with an environmental objective not aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

The share of sustainable investments with environmental objective not aligned to taxonomy was 25.66% at the end of the period.

This is due to the fact that some issuers are considered sustainable investments under the SFDR Regulation but do have a portion of activities that are not aligned with EU taxonomy standards, or for which data is not yet available to perform an EU taxonomy assessment are sustainable investments with an environmental objective that do not take into account the criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities under Regulation (EU) 2020/852.

What was the share of socially sustainable investments?

What investments were included under “other”, what was their purpose and were there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

Included in “#2 Other” are cash and instruments for the purpose of liquidity and portfolio risk management. It may also include ESG unrated securities for which data needed for the measurement of attainment of environmental or social characteristics is not available. For unrated bonds and shares, minimum environmental and social safeguards are in place via controversy screening against the UN Global Compact Principles. It may also include ESG unrated securities for which data needed for the measurement of attainment of environmental or social characteristics is not available.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

Sustainability indicators are continuously made available in the portfolio management system allowing the portfolio managers to assess the impact of their investment decisions. These indicators are embedded within Amundi’s control framework, with responsibilities spread between the first level of controls performed by the Investment teams themselves and the second level of controls performed by the Amundi Risk teams, who monitor compliance with environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund on an ongoing basis. Moreover, Amundi’s Responsible Investment Policy sets out an active approach to engagement that promotes dialogue with investee companies including those in the portfolio of this product. Amundi’s Annual Engagement Report, available on <https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation>, provides detailed reporting on this engagement and its results.

Reference benchmarks are indexes to measure whether the financial product attains the environmental or social characteristics that they promote.

Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not include a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The Sub-Fund continuously promoted environmental and/or social characteristics by aiming to have a higher ESG score than that of the investment universe. In determining the ESG score of the Sub-Fund and the investment universe, ESG performance is assessed by comparing the average performance of a security against the security issuer's industry, in respect of each of the three ESG characteristics of environmental, social and governance. For the purpose of this measurement, the investment universe is defined as MSCI AC WORLD IMI Index. No ESG Reference Index has been designated.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

To continuously promote environmental and/or social characteristics the Fund has sought to invest in companies considered a 'best performer' in its sector of activity on at least one of its material environmental or social factors by:

- 1) following best environmental and social practices; and
- 2) avoiding making products or providing services that harm the environment and society.

The Sub-Fund met its promoted environmental and/or social characteristics by having a higher ESG score than that of the investment universe.

● How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicator used is the ESG score of the Sub-Fund that is measured against the ESG score of the investment universe of the Sub-Fund. Amundi's ESG rating process is based on the "Best-in-class" approach. Ratings adapted to each sector of activity aim to assess the dynamics in which companies operate. The Amundi ESG rating used to determine the ESG score is an ESG quantitative score translated into seven grades, ranging from A (the best scores in the universe) to G (the worst).

At the end of the period (February 29, 2024) the weighted average ESG rating of

- the investment universe is -0.16 (D)

The Amundi ESG rating used to determine the ESG score is an ESG quantitative score translated into seven grades, ranging from A (the best scores universe) to G (the worst). In the Amundi ESG Rating scale, the securities belonging to the exclusion list correspond to a G. For corporate issuers, ESG performance is assessed globally and at relevant criteria level by comparison with the average performance of its industry, through the combination of the three ESG dimensions:

- Environmental dimension: this examines issuers' ability to control their direct and indirect environmental impact, by limiting their energy consumption, reducing their greenhouse emissions, fighting resource depletion and protecting biodiversity.
- Social dimension: this measures how an issuer operates on two distinct concepts: the issuer's strategy to develop its human capital and the respect of the human rights in general;
- Governance dimension: This assesses capability of the issuer to ensure the basis for an effective corporate governance framework and generate value over the long-term.

The methodology applied by Amundi ESG rating uses 38 criteria that are either generic (common to all companies regardless of their activity) or sector specific which are weighted according to sector and considered in terms of their impact on reputation, operational efficiency and regulations in respect of an issuer. Amundi ESG ratings are likely to be expressed globally on the three E, S and G dimensions or individually on any environmental or social factor.

At the end of the previous period the weighted average ESG rating of

- the portfolio was C+
- the investment universe was D

● What were the objectives of the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made and how did the sustainable investment contribute to such objectives?

The objectives of the sustainable investments were (and are) to invest in companies that seek to meet two criteria:

- 1) follow best environmental and social practices; and
- 2) avoid making products or providing services that harm the environment and society.

In order for the investee company to be deemed to contribute to the above objective it had to be a “best performer” within its sector of activity on at least one of its material environmental or social factors.

The definition of “best performer” relies on Amundi’s proprietary ESG methodology which aims to measure the ESG performance of an investee company. In order to be considered a “best performer”, an investee company must perform with the best top three rating (A, B or C, out of a rating scale going from A to G) within its sector on at least one material environmental or social factor.

Material environmental and social factors are identified at a sector level. The identification of material factors is based on Amundi’s ESG analysis framework which combines extra financial data and qualitative analysis of associated sector and sustainability themes.

Factors identified as material result in a contribution of more than 10% to the overall ESG score. For the energy sector for example, material factors are: emissions and energy, biodiversity and pollution, health and security, local communities and human rights.

For a more complete overview of sectors and factors, please refer to the Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement available at www.amundi.lu.

To contribute to the above objectives, the investee company should not have significant exposure to activities (e.g. tobacco, weapons, gambling, coal, aviation, meat production, fertilizer and pesticide manufacturing, single-use plastic production) not compatible with such criteria.

The sustainable nature of an investment is assessed at investee company level.

How did the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made not cause significant harm to any environmental or social sustainable investment objective?

To ensure sustainable investments do no significant harm (“DNSH”), Amundi utilized (and currently utilizes) two filters:

1.) The first DNSH test filter relies on monitoring the mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts indicators in Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS where robust data is available (e.g. GHG intensity of investee companies) via a combination of indicators (e.g. carbon intensity) and specific thresholds or rules (e.g. that the investee company’s carbon intensity does not belong to the last decile of the sector). Amundi already considers specific Principle Adverse Impacts within its exclusion policy as part of Amundi’s Responsible Investment Policy. These exclusions, which apply on the top of the tests detailed above, cover the following topics: exclusions on controversial weapons, Violations of UN Global Compact principles, coal and tobacco.

2.) Beyond the specific sustainability factors covered in the first filter, Amundi has defined a second filter, which does not take the mandatory Principal Adverse Impact indicators above into account, in order to verify that the company does not badly perform from an overall environmental or social standpoint compared to other companies within its sector which corresponds to an environmental or social score superior or equal to E using Amundi's ESG rating.

— — — How were the indicators for adverse impacts on sustainability factors taken into account?

The indicators for adverse impacts have been taken into account as detailed in the first DNSH filter above:

The first DNSH filter relies on monitoring of mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts indicators in Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS where robust data is available via the combination of following indicators and specific thresholds or rules:

- Have a CO2 intensity which does not belong to the last decile compared to other companies within its sector (only applies to high intensity sectors), and
- Have a Board of Directors' diversity which does not belong to the last decile compared to other companies within its sector, and
- Be cleared of any controversy in relation to work conditions and human rights.
- Be cleared of any controversy in relation to biodiversity and pollution.

Amundi already considers specific Principle Adverse Impacts within its exclusion policy as part of Amundi's Responsible Investment Policy. These exclusions, which apply on the top of the tests detailed above, cover the following topics: exclusions on controversial weapons, Violations of UN Global Compact principles, coal and tobacco.

— — — Were sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights? Details:

Yes, the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights are integrated into our ESG scoring methodology. Our proprietary ESG rating tool assesses issuers using available data from our data providers. For example the model has a dedicated criteria called "Community Involvement & Human Rights" which is applied to all sectors in addition to other human rights linked criteria including socially responsible supply chains, working conditions, and labor relations. Furthermore, we conduct controversy monitoring on a, at minimum, quarterly basis which includes companies identified for human rights violations. When controversies arise, analysts will evaluate the situation and apply a score to the controversy (using our proprietary scoring methodology) and determine the best course of action. Controversy scores are updated quarterly to track the trend and remediation efforts.

How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

The Sub-Fund considers all the mandatory Principal Adverse Impacts as per Annex 1, Table 1 of the RTS applying to the Sub-Fund's strategy and relies on a combination of exclusion policies (normative and sectorial), ESG rating integration into the investment process, engagement and voting approaches and controversies monitoring:

- Exclusion: Amundi has defined normative, activity-based and sector-based exclusion rules covering some of the key adverse sustainability indicators listed by the Disclosure Regulation.
- ESG factors integration: Amundi has adopted minimum ESG integration standards applied by default to its actively managed open-ended funds (exclusion of G rated issuers and better weighted average ESG score higher than the applicable benchmark). The 38 criteria used in Amundi's ESG rating approach were also designed to consider key impacts on sustainability factors, as well as quality of the mitigation undertaken are also considered in that respect.
- Engagement: Engagement is a continuous and purpose driven process aimed at influencing the activities or behaviour of investee companies. The aim of engagement activities can fall into two categories: to engage an issuer to improve the way it integrates the environmental and social dimension or to engage an issuer to improve its impact on environmental, social, and human rights-related or other sustainability matters that are material to society and the global economy.
- Voting: Amundi's voting policy responds to a holistic analysis of all the long-term issues that may influence value creation, including material ESG issues. For more information please refer to Amundi's Voting Policy* .
- Controversies monitoring: Amundi has developed a controversy tracking system that relies on three external data providers to systematically track controversies and their level of severity. This quantitative approach is then enriched with an in-depth assessment of each severe controversy, led by ESG analysts and the periodic review of its evolution. This approach applies to all of Amundi's funds.

For any indication on how mandatory Principal Adverse Impact indicators are used, please refer to the Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement available at www.amundi.lu

The EU Taxonomy sets out a “do not significant harm” principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm EU Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific Union criteria.

The “do no significant harm” principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.
